TO MRS. MELVIN ROE, faculty member and former sponsor of the Sagebrusher, we students of Rock Springs High School dedicate this annual.

School Spirit--An ingredient every school desires but in which few abound.

Symbols of

School Spirit resides in the hearts of all loyal young American students who give of themselves toward a better life in a better school.

School Spirit

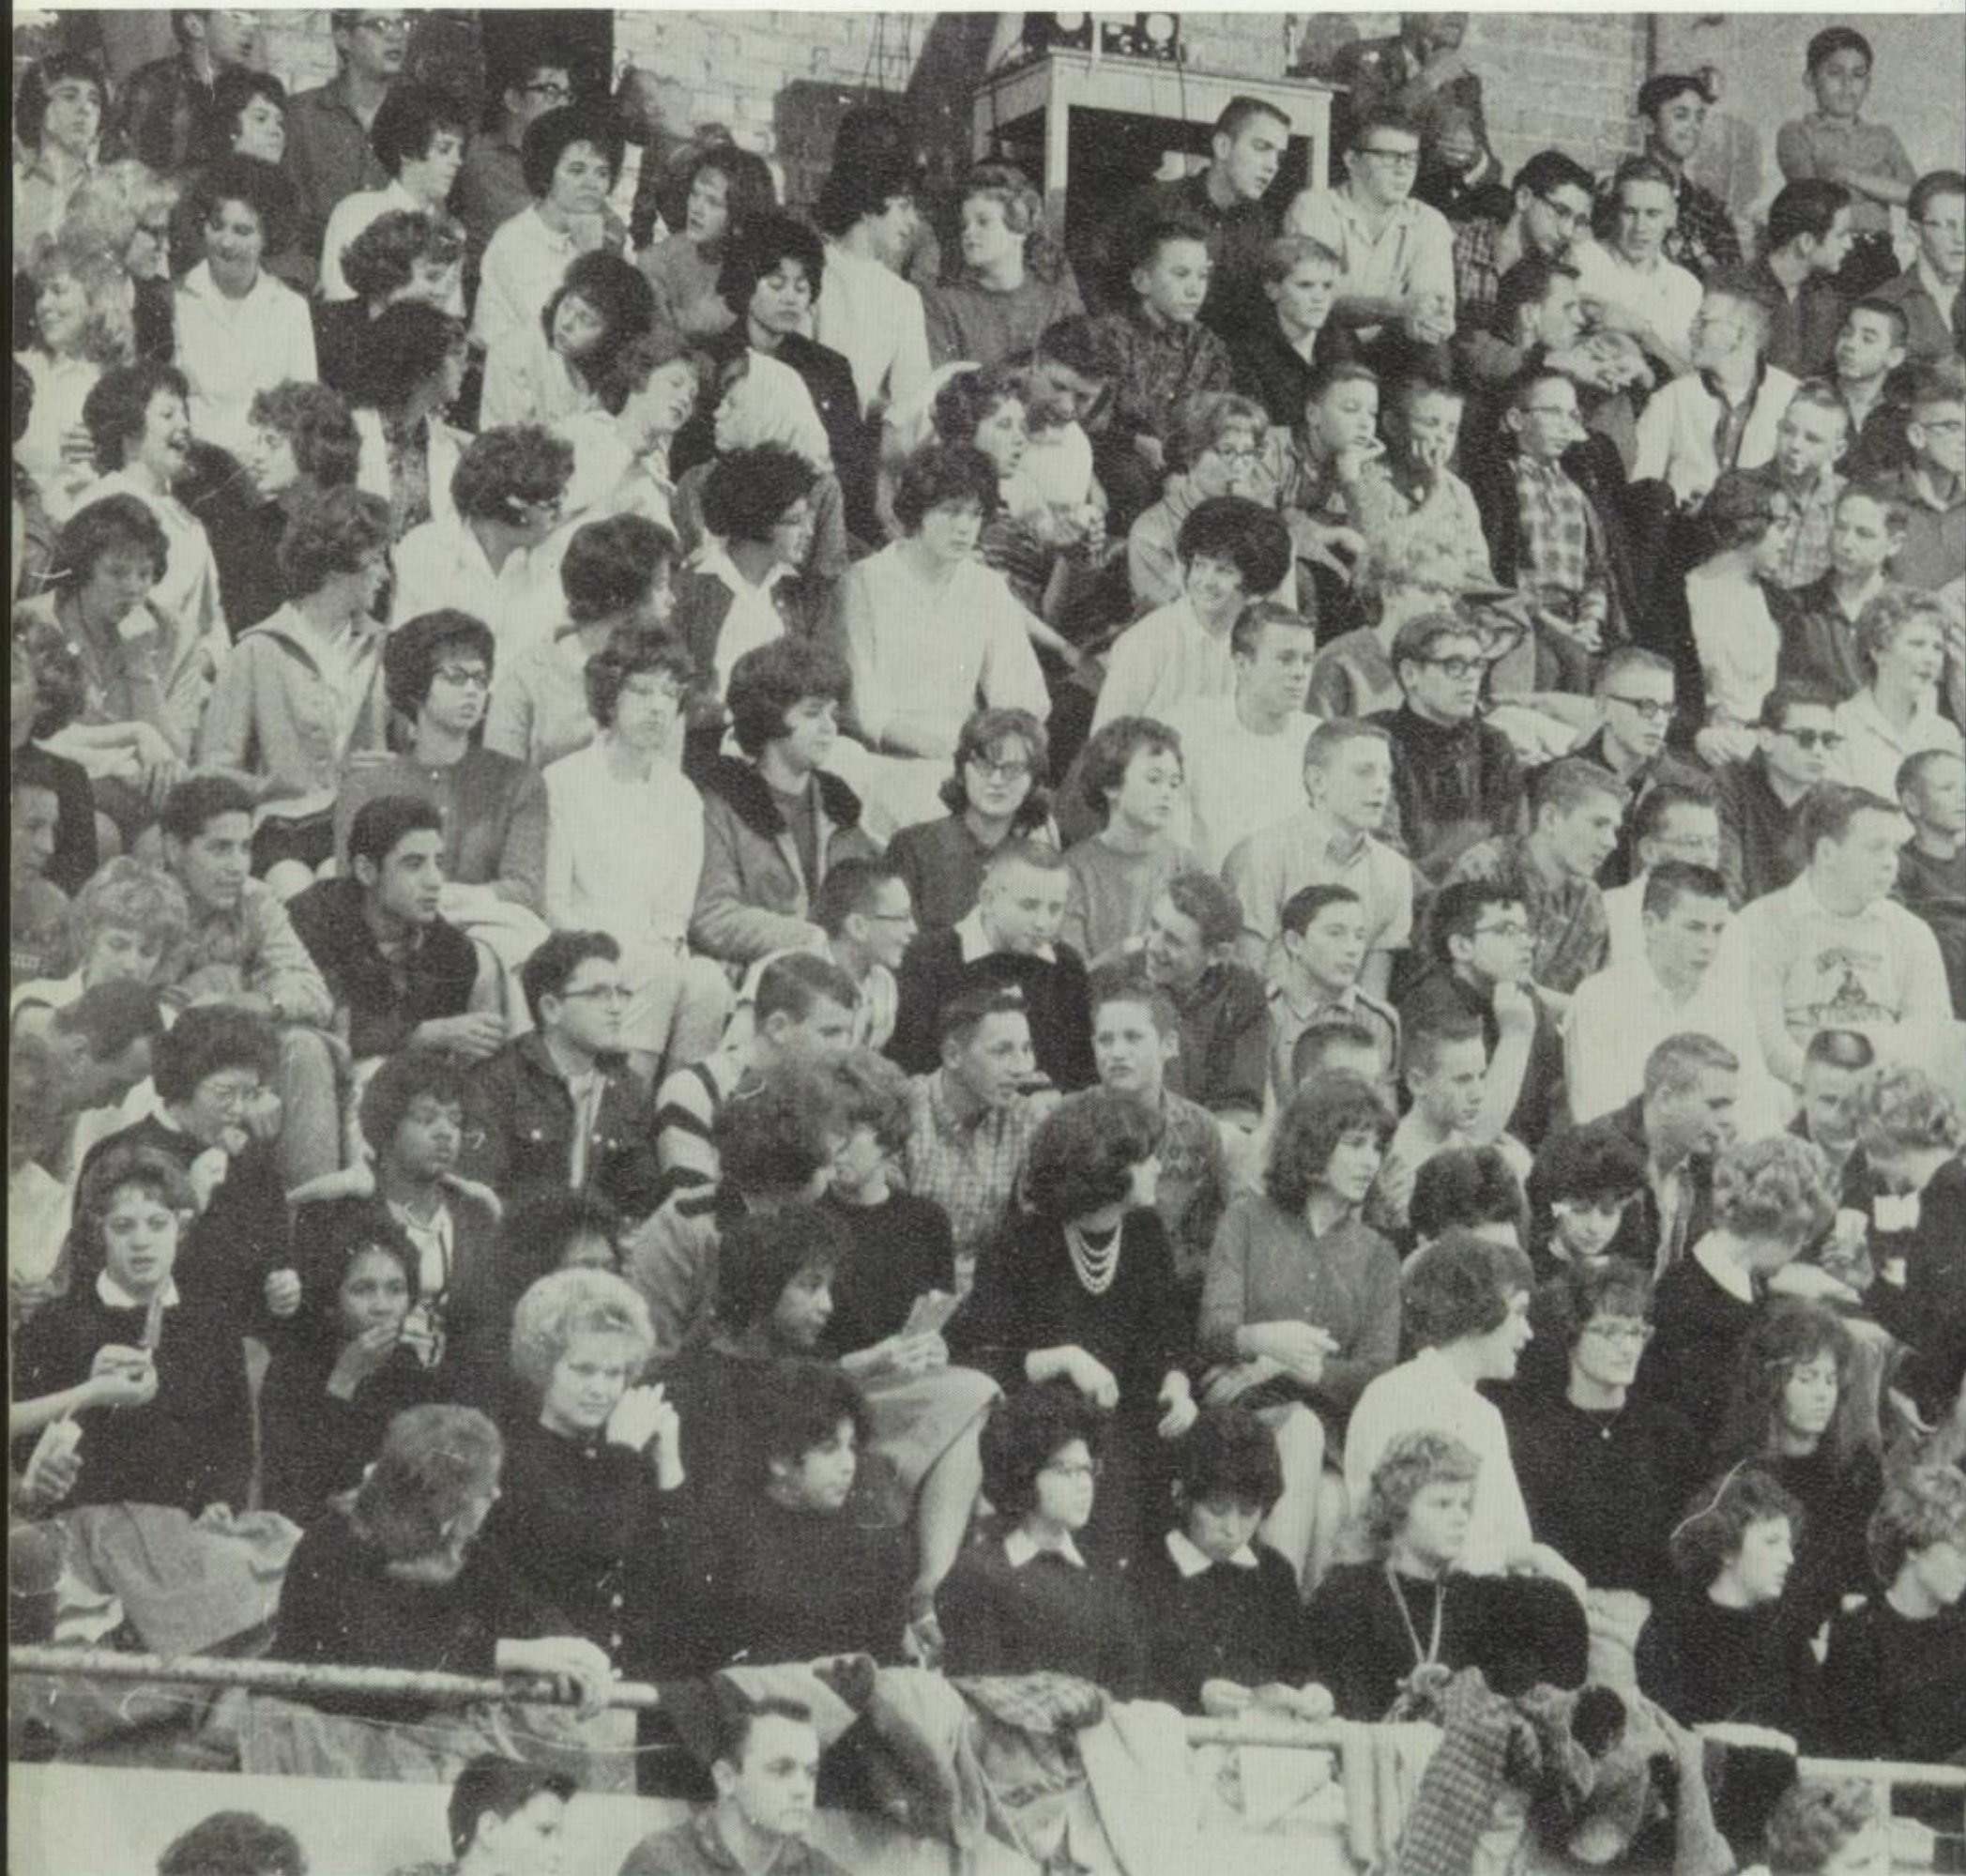

Symbols of

Generosity--an element from which we derive the pleasure of giving. During our annual Pennies-for-a-Purpose Week, students and teachers alike wilfully contributed to the many activities during the course of the week, such as Crazy Hat Day and the Slave Auction.

Generosity

Symbols of

Anticipation

Anticipation--A feeling of anxiety that exists among friends--friends who experience the same emotions as the seconds tick by on a clock or as a final whistle is blown.

Production--The construction of new ideas and combination of them into a future that holds great opportunities for everyone.

ADMINISTRATION

This the symbol of the Administration.
In every efficient and highly-rated school there is an important and outstanding integral part known as the faculty. Faculty are friends, teachers, advisors and disciplinarians. To them we are grateful for their wonderful help, both in imparting knowledge to us and in enabling us to educate ourselves by using the capabilities and abilities with which we were endowed; by making the most of what we have.

Decisions of the Board of Education Affect All

The capable minds of the men on the Board of Trustees carefully weigh out all questions put before them. Their decisions are as fair as a man's can be.

Superintendent,
Jack M. Smith

Jack M. Smith is not a newcomer to school administration. He officiated as both high school and junior high school principal before becoming superintendent of our school system. He has maintained this position for the past two years.

Principal, Henry F. Chadey

Henry F. Chadey came to us from Glenrock, Wyoming, where he served as high school principal. He is not new in this community as he was Superintendent of the Reliance schools before their closing. We wish to welcome him and hope that his years here will be enjoyable.

GEMMIE WELSH--Clerk

The office personnel strive to complete the many tedious assignments required for the efficient administration of the school.

SUE ROBERTS--Secretary to the Superintendent

Office Workers Experience Same Old Grind

ESTELLE DRANEY--School District Budget Officer

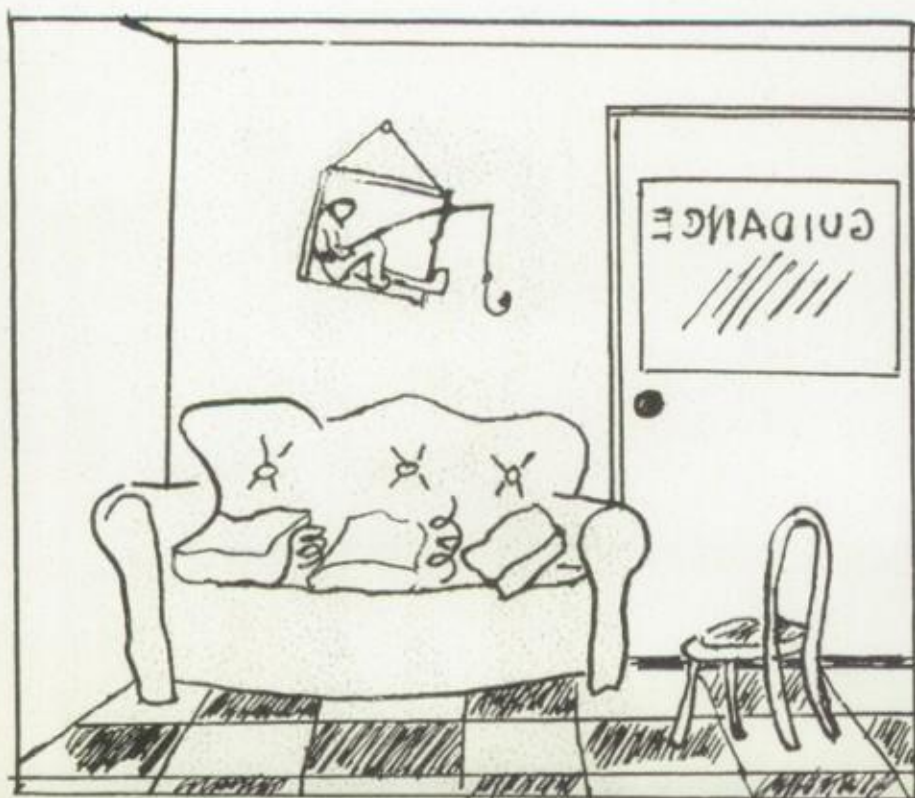

Mr. Easton and Mr. Smith have the task each year of helping us make important decisions—decisions that will make our futures a success. When we are freshmen, they help us decide what general courses we want to follow. They then outline the classes necessary for college prep, commercial, or any other division we may choose. By the time we are seniors, if we have taken their advice, we should be well on the road to success.

THEODORE EASTON--Guidance Counselor; GARRETT SMITH--Assistant Guidance Counselor.

This energetic group of students comprises the ruling body of our school. Through their hard work and ingenious minds came moments to remember, such as Homecoming, the Winter Ball, and Penny Week. The work that has been done by this group has been a marvelous contribution to R.S.H.S.

"A little nonsense now and then is relished by the wisest men."

A little big for that, aren't you?

SPORTS

This is the symbol of Sports.

The sports of our school were represented by teams that were outstanding in effort, school spirit, and sportsmanship.

Behind each reward in basketball, football, swimming, track, or wrestling there are hours of hard work, sacrifice and disappointment; times when these boys felt that they could do no more, only to go on striving and doing as never before until that final whistle was blown or the final second had ticked by.

The students not concerned directly in the sports gave of themselves in cheering their teams to victory, gave loyalty and understanding in defeat.

DANCES

The highlights of our social season were our dances - the "Sadie Hawkins Dance" with its amusing costumes, the beautifully decorated prom, with the suspenseful moment of the elected queen, the Winter Ball that gave many Freshmen a chance of their first "gala" evening, along with the Freshman Hop that gave our Freshmen a "chance to get acquainted."

The gaiety, laughs, excitement will live forever in our memories.

Much time is spent by the students on these staffs to make sure that their jobs are done effectively and well.

Remember that it is easy to criticize, but could you have done better if you had had the job?

The Tiger Talk has helped keep students and teachers informed with all the latest news that has been made here in R. S. High this year.

With the addition of a Multigraph Duplicating machine, the Tiger Talk staff has been able to put out a weekly paper with added "inquiry" magazines. The machine has not yet been completely mastered by the sponsor, Mr. Hilgenfeld, but it is hoped that in future years it will be possible to develop the paper more fully and run pictures in every edition.
